

SRA Holds Sugar Industry Stakeholder's Forum and Dialogue with National Federation of Sugarcane Workers

The Sugar Regulatory Administration (SRA) hosted the Sugar Industry Stakeholders' Forum back to back with a Dialogue with the National Federation of Sugarcane Workers last September 29, 2017 held at the SRA Social Hall, Bacolod City and at the Negros Occidental Provincial Capitol respectively.

Themed "Biyaheng Bukid", the forum was spearheaded by the Secretary of the Department of Agriculture, Sec. Manny F. Piñol.

In the event were the newly appointed SRA Administrator Engr. Hemernegildo R. Serafica, Board Member Atty. Roland Beltran, officials of the Local Government and the different stakeholders of the sugarcane industry.

Likewise, the officials of DA, SRA and local government who are present during the Stakeholders' Forum were also in the Dialogue with the National Federation of Sugarcane Workers at the Bacolod City Social Hall, Provincial Capitol, Negros Occidental.

