

SRA Joins US Embassy Thanksgiving Celebration

SRA was invited to celebrate Thanksgiving through a lunch gathering at the US Embassy hosted by Ambassador Sung Kim to showcase U.S. food products available in the Philippines on 13 November 2018.

During the event, visiting U.S. Under Secretary of Agriculture for Trade and Foreign Agricultural Affairs Ted McKinney cites the Philippines as one of the largest markets in Southeast Asia for U.S. food and agricultural exports.

He expressed his appreciation to Philippine consumers who support U.S. agriculture and demonstrate awareness of the quality and variety of U.S. food products

While in the Philippines, Under Secretary McKinney met with Department of Agriculture Secretary Emmanuel F. Piñol to discuss the strong and growing two-way agricultural trade relationship between the U.S. and the Philippines.
